

The Beijing Center

for Chinese Studies

2016-2017 Semester Cost Sheet

Semester Program Fee (invoiced by TBC)

Tuition	*Standard Housing	CISI International Health and Emergency Insura	Total
$14,000	$2,500	$300	$16,800

Additional Fees for Special Housing Options (invoiced by TBC)

Single, Apartment- Style Room	$1,800
Regular Single	$1,500
Double Occupancy, Apartment Style Room	$500

Other Estimated Expenses for Budgeting Purposes

Airfare	$1,500
Passport application fee	$100
Visa application fee	$140
Daily Meals	$1,500
Textbooks	$300
Electricity and water bills	$80
Local Cell phone and number (not include usage fees)	$50
- Cell phone minutes (domestic and int'l calls)	$100	(international calling can be much more, and students typically use web-based calling to call internationally)
Local Transportation (subway and taxi)	$200
Optional trips and entertainment	$500
Personal expenses and souvenirs	$500

* Standard housing is in a double occupancy dormitory style residence hall

* Full year students pay the semester program fee each term

Note: TBC students receive a campus dining card with a complimentary credit of approximately $50 USD to sample campus dining.

TBC students living in building 5 and 6 will receive complimentary wifi internet acces.