

SEMESTER COSTS

A. Program Fee (billed to home school)

Tuition

Housing (apartment-style suites) in MUC's West Gate International House

CISI Health Insurance

Program Fee Includes

- 12-19 credit hours
- Students housed in MUC's West Gate International House with on-campus Wi-Fi
- CISI Health Insurance
- Approximately 10-day academic excursion
- One-week orientation in Beijing (airport transportation, seminars, activities, most meals)
- 24-hour emergency phone and on-site support
- Individual Chinese language tutor
- Weekend day trips in and around Beijing
- Access to MUC facilities, including the on-campus library and sports fields
- Pre-departure communication and support (visa, housing, health, etc.)
- Initial dining stipend (CNY200)

B. Non-TBC Estimated Expenses (non-billable and for reference only)

Airfare	$1,250
---------	---------

*Airfare expenses may vary depending on the travel conditions.

Meals	$1,500
-------	---------

Textbooks/Supplies	$300
--------------------	-------

Entry Visa to China	$140
---------------------	-------

Visa Conversion Fees (after arriving in China)	$140-$160
--	-------------

*Optional. Non-TBC fees for students to get multiple entries.

Local Transportation	$200
----------------------	-------

Cell Phone & Minutes Usage	$80
----------------------------	------

Personal (optional trips/travel, souvenirs)	$1,000
---	---------